NOTE: The Amstutz's have decided to discontinue the dairy portion of their farming operation and sell the following at auction. This is an exceptionally well uddered herd of young Holstein cattle. According to records of milk sold the herd average is 2x 20,000 pounds with a 70 pound tank average, 4.5% fat, 3.2% protein, current SCC 138,000. Cows receive primarily home-raised rations with great potential for increased production. Cows are milked in a double 5 parallel parlor and housed in a sand bedded free stall area. All cows and heifers are head-lock trained. Several cows recently fresh or due late summer and early fall. This herd has been exclusively AI bred for many years using leading sires, including but not limited to: Outside, Chelios, Masterful, Grand, Fairview, Bloomfield, Alcove, Maestro and Einstein, among others. Several descendants from replacements purchased from the Goebel herd. Cows have received their Triangle 10 vaccinations and boosted. Hooves trimmed fall of 2020 and spring of 2021. If you are in need of hard-to-find, farm-fresh herd additions, we strongly urge you to attend the Amstutz dispersion. A catalog containing breeding and production information will be available approximately 2 weeks prior to the auction, phone (320) 760-2979 or see online at: www.midamericanauctioninc.com. Trucking available. Prior inspection welcome by appointment beginning Friday, August 13th. No Sunday visits or phone calls please. Thank you!
